The knife is a ugly-looking seaman's pocket knife and from the blood caked on the blade, seems to have been bared almost up to the hilt.

A boy, age 20, from an exchange shop went on board the Empress with a bag containing re 950 in paper money and Mexican dollars mixed, for exchange as usual. Just as he was about to enter one of the cabins, probably the press-cabin, a foreign sailor suddenly appeared from behind and, grasping the man by the collar, pulled him over his shoulder, halted. The boy turned to pursue the thief, but was forcibly stopped by two other seamen, while the damning deed was being committed. The incident was reported by the boy to his employer who notified the Kenebu and the Police. Several constables, accompanied by Saitama city officials, went aboard early this afternoon to investigate the matter, but without result. The departure
